Apply Now

Over 10-12 weeks, we'll provide you with the initial training you'll need to get you up to speed in Salesforce and support you as you gain your industry certifications to become an official Salesforce Developer. We'll then place you with our client, to give you that all-important experience that will help you stand out in the jobs market.

Plus, as part of our commitment to creating incredible talent as a Salesforce Authorized Training Provider, we'll also provide you with your own personal career development coach, and a tailored learning and development plan so you'll feel confident as you get paid to work with the world's most popular CRM.

Once you're trained and certified, you'll work with our client to design, engineer, and deliver elegant solutions that solve their business challenges. Your role could include:

- Functionality and stability testing of applications
- Designing, coding, and implementing apps through Salesforce
- Creating development goals and timelines

Ad

- Troubleshooting, fixing bugs, and maintaining application software security
- Documentation and creating training documents

Who we're looking for

To apply for this program, you'll need a strong working knowledge of Object Oriented Programming (OOP), preferably Java, JavaScript, or C# and experience of at least one full software development lifecycle in a commercial setting.

You'll also need to be able to work in an Agile environment and be able to understand design and the rationale behind great development. Preferably, candidates will have demonstrated experience in any of the following sectors: Finance, Banking, Wealth Management, or Insurance. However, we will accept candidates from other backgrounds.

Finally, you'll need to be an excellent communicator, collaborator, and problem solver, and dedicated to learning your new skill set

Privacy - Terms

To apply for this program, you'll also need to be:

- Willing to commit to a minimum of two years' working with Revolent, post training
- Able to commit to 40 hours per week, post training
- Available to start training on Jan 9th, 2023

Preferably, candidates will be living with a commutable distance of Buffalo, NY (although Canadian candidates will be considered), however this is not essential.

This is a hybrid role with a mix of office-based and remote work. Successful applicants will be expected to travel to the office 2-3 times per week, post-training.

Your benefits

As part of our two-year training program, we offer a competitive salary, other company benefits, and the opportunity to gain experience working with fantastic clients.

You will also receive:

- Comprehensive, fully funded, training to become a Salesforce Developer
- Fully funded Salesforce Certification: Salesforce Administrator
- Fully funded Salesforce Certification: Salesforce Platform Developer 1
- Extensive consultancy skills training

- Support to gain further certifications during your journey with us
- A professional development plan tailored to your career goals
- Access to mentoring and support programs and networking opportunities

More about Revolent

We're experts at creating incredible Cloud talent. We recruit, cross-train, and place skilled tech professionals with our world-class clients, while creating a more diverse workforce across the cloud sector.

Our Revols are the most important part of our business, which is why we invest so heavily in their professional development, launching their careers in the Cloud. It's also why our first-time certification pass rate is so high.

We're also committed to giving back to the ecosystem we believe in. We support a diverse range of causes all around the world, allowing our Revols to gain extra experience by helping charities who need them the most.

We're on an unstoppable journey of growth and are constantly on the lookout for people who want to go beyond and change their career for the better.
